Committee Shift On Bridge Bill Might Not Help

LANSING (AP) — A Senate committee switch for the Mackinac Bridge bill may not have done much to improve its chances for passage but its chief supporter figures some hope is better than none.

The bill would permit refinancing of Mackinac Bridge bonds and some lowering of auto tolls. It won 103-0 approval in the House Thursday.

Such a plan has been under consideration all year in the Senate State Affairs Committee, whose chairman, William Romano, D-Warren, said two weeks ago the measure does not satisfy him.

Schweigert Request

So when the bill came to the Senate Friday, Lt. Gov. William Milliken, the presiding officer, referred it to the Highways Committee.

Romano stood in surprise for a moment, but made no motion to recapture the bill for his committee.

Chicago Youths Fight In School

By United Press International

Negro and white students fought throughout a Chicago high school Friday and squads of 50 policemen rushed in to restore order.

Three students were injured and 14 arrested at Austin High School, where two white football players were hospitalized last month when they were beaten in the corridors by a group of Negroes.

Police Capt. Edward Russell said the fights "were definitely racial."

Negro enrollment in the school, which has about 3,000 students has risen from 250 to 482, and school officials say racial tension also has risen.

At Crawfordville, Ga., Negroes staged another demonstration Friday night, about 150 of them marching to the courthouse of the northwest Georgia town. Small groups of whites watched but there were no incidents.

Three federal judges will hear a request Tuesday at Augusta, Ga., by Negroes seeking a sweeping injunction requiring immediate school integration in a three county area including Crawfordville.

State Executive Pay Boosts Tied To Legislature

LANSING (AP) — The House has approved $366,960 in salaries for 18 state executives.

But nobody gets a raise until the Legislature at least has some hope of raising its own pay, says the chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee which now has control of the salaries bill.

The measure, approved 88-15 by the House Friday, is part of the governmental reorganization program. It sets salaries ranging from $12,500 to $30,000 a year for 18 of the new or revamped executive positions.

Committee Established

"But we're not going to give anybody any raises until our blue ribbon committee on legislative salaries is ready with its report and we can get to the public with our message," said Sen. Garland Lane D-Flint.

Gov. George Romney, Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel, Detroit, and Minority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, agreed in an unannounced meeting Thursday to establish a 12-man committee to study legislative salaries and make recommendations early next year.

Michigan lawmakers—among the highest paid in the nation at $10,000 a year and $2,500 in expenses—tried unsuccessfully earlier this year to raise legislative salaries by $5,000 starting Jan. 1, 1967.

Report Scheduled

The measure passed the House but died in the Senate under a filibuster from Gov. George Romney that he might veto some other money measures if the pay raise were forced on him.

Romney will appoint six members to the committee. Dzendzel and Lockwood will appoint six "private citizens, workers, businessmen, church people and so forth," Dzendzel said.

It is to report back in time for the Legislature to pass legislation to take effect Jan. 1, 1967.

"If it's not done by then, nothing can happen until 1971," Dzendzel said. Senators will begin four-year terms in 1967, and the State Constitution prohibits the raising of salaries during a term of office.

Want More Money

"We'll have to win re-election to get any raise in 1967," he added. "That was lost sight of in the House hubbalooboo."

Even if governmental reorganization is implemented and present department heads take on broad new responsibilities or if new people are hired, "there will be no raises till we get our chance," Lane said. "There are 1,775 people in state government who make more than legislators—and they for the most part carry out the policy we set."

Romney has recommended executive salaries ranging from $20,000 to $35,000. The House approved bill generally was lower than Romney's suggested salary schedule, as well as one recommended by the State Civil Service Commission.

And the final versions of the bill passed this fall probably would be lower than that recommended by the House, Lane said.

Senate Clears Path For Vote On Filibuster

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate today cleared the way for a showdown Monday on a leadership move to halt a week-long filibuster against repeal of states' right to enact "right-to-work" laws.

A special Saturday session lasted only 40 minutes. Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., dropped a plan to speak extensively today against the repeal bill, but did speak on another subject. He praised Miami's Inter-American Cultural and Trade Center and urged U.S. participation.

The routine session was necessary to assure a vote at 1 p.m. EDT Monday on a motion by Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield to curb debate on taking up the "right-to-work" measure.

Mansfield's cloture petition, signed by 21 senators, was filed Friday and Senate rules require a vote on the second meeting day after filing.

Senator Blasts U-M Stand On Education

LANSING (AP) — The chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee ripped into University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher Friday for the educator's statement this week that government is interfering too much with universities.

Sen. Garland Lane, D-Flint, who has been an ally of Hatcher on such matters as expansion of the U-M Flint branch, said the Constitution of the state stands in contrast to Hatcher's opinion.

Hatcher had cited the State Board of Education, the Legislature and its several committees as only a few of the multiple lines of authority between the universities and state governments.

Lane interpreted Hatcher's remarks in the annual state of the university speech as saying "that the university should be permitted to determine, without any outside influence, the amount of money they will withdraw from the state treasury each year."

CADILLAC (UPI) — A service station was held up today by a man wearing overalls and carrying a sawed-off shotgun.

Rhodesian Talks Collapse; Fear Racial Violence

LONDON (AP) — Fears of racial violence in Rhodesia mounted today after negotiations on the future of the white-ruled British colony collapsed.

The conference between Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith and Prime Minister Harold Wilson broke down Friday as Smith insisted that Rhodesia become independent without further delay.

Wilson demanded that independence be held off until the white minority takes steps to ensure eventual rule by the colony's 3.9 million black African majority.

British Defied

Smith, leader of the 250,000 white Rhodesians, seemed ready to defy Britain and declare independence unilaterally. "There is no alternative," he said in a broadcast beamed to Rhodesia. But some observers said he might avoid any immediate declaration of independence until he returns to Rhodesia and consults his Cabinet.

If Rhodesia breaks away, its Africans are expected to react violently, feeling they have lost their last hope of ever attaining majority rule. Observers also fear a violent reaction against whites elsewhere in Africa.

At the United Nations in New York, the United States warned it would join other nations in "concrete action" to oppose a Rhodesian breakaway. The United States has said it would not recognize a white government that took such a step.

U.N. Action Possible

New Zealand took a similar stand and said African leaders could play a key role in preventing an explosion by seeking a reconciliation of all factions in Rhodesia.

There has been talk in the United Nations of organizing a Congo-type international force aimed at installing a new regime in Rhodesia.

British sources said the government has made it clear to Smith it would not oppose U.N. action connected with Rhodesia.

Wilson warned Smith that Britain and other Commonwealth nations plan diplomatic and economic sanctions to isolate Rhodesia if it breaks away.

Observers said Britain also probably would fly troops to neighboring Zambia — formerly Northern Rhodesia — to guard against violence in that nation, now ruled by Africans.

The President pronounced himself in good shape. His doctors were willing to go along with that assessment. The White House said they were enthusiastic at the way their prominent patient was getting along — minus a gall bladder and a stone that started in a kidney and lodged in a duct.

President 'Feeling Fine,' Signs Congressional Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, described as "feeling fine," was up before dawn today and quickly swung into official business—signing a bill sent him by Congress.

Johnson, who had a major, two-in-one abdominal operation less than 24 hours earlier, was up at 6 a.m. About 35 minutes later, he sat up in a chair to sign a bill extending the interest equalization tax—a measure designed to help ease the nation's balance of payments problem.

The bill-signing was witnessed by a news photographer who had been summoned minutes earlier to the third floor presidential suite at the Bethesda Naval Hospital in suburban Maryland.

Has Restful Night

Soon thereafter, the White House press office relayed this word from Johnson's longtime family physician:

"Dr. James Cain reports that the President slept well, had a very restful night and is feeling fine."

The President pronounced himself in good shape. His doctors were willing to go along with that assessment. The White House said they were enthusiastic at the way their prominent patient was getting along — minus a gall bladder and a stone that started in a kidney and lodged in a duct.

Gets Out Of Bed

These were removed one at a time by different doctors, through the same incision, in a 24-hour operation Friday morning. The physicians said the operation was "entirely successful and pretty much routine. They said there was no malignancy."

Johnson did have some pain and discomfort and fatigue. But less than five hours after the operation he was on his feet and taking several steps, with help from his chief surgeon, Dr. George A. Hallenbeck, and a Navy nurse.

This was about 2 p.m. At 6:30, he was up again and walking with a little assistance.

During the afternoon, White House press secretary Bill D. Moyers asked the President how he felt.

He quoted Johnson as saying: "Well, I feel all right. I feel some discomfort but I am in good shape."

Moyers said his boss looked as you would expect a man to look who had just had his gall bladder removed — tired.

To See Staff

During the afternoon Moyers said the President gave some routine instructions to members of his staff but that there was no need for him to make any important decisions.

Moyers said Johnson would see more staff members today and "I imagine there'll be some bills signed." He said several of them, routine and minor, required action today.

Friday night, Moyers reported the President was fed through a vein, received a mild sedative and dropped off to sleep about 9:45. He said he thought Johnson was more comfortable than he had been during the afternoon, that the doctors thought things were par for the course and it was "going to be a smooth night."

Again, Mrs. Johnson spent the night in the third-floor presidential suite at the U.S. Naval Hospital in suburban Bethesda, Md. This time, daughter Lynda spent the night there, too, after flying in from Austin, Tex., where she attends the state university.

Requests Clergyman

Daughter Luci was in and out, before and after classes at Georgetown University.

At the President's request, the Rev. George Davis of National City Christian church visited the hospital and was waiting when Johnson was wheeled back to his room following surgery.

"I believe that Mr. Davis offered a prayer," Moyers said, "and he remained in the room for another 45 minutes and then left."

There were no other visitors Friday, Moyers said. Telegrams and telephone calls and flowers deluged the hospital, all bearing good wishes.

The President's stay is estimated at 10 to 14 days.

Cuban Refugees Leaving Sunday

HAVANA (AP) — Cuba Says refugee boats will be allowed to return to the United States Sunday with any Cubans who wish to leave their homeland.

Cuban exiles piloted several small boats here from the United States Friday and the Foreign Ministry said they would be allowed to leave Sunday, taking any refugees with them.

The ministry arranged to take newsmen to Camarioca, the fishing port which Prime Minister Fidel Castro has designated as the refugee exit point.

Attack Reported

It was from Camarioca, about 60 miles east of Havana on the north coast, that the first group of 15 left Thursday after two Florida men sailed there to pick up their Cuban relatives.

Four exiles reportedly took another 33 Cubans off the island early Friday. One exile claimed that Castro militiamen machine-gunned his boat and wounded him in the leg.

It was not known why Cuba was encouraging refugees to leave before the current negotiations with the United States on how to handle the exodus are concluded.

The Swiss Embassy charge d'affaires, Arthur Monnier, said he had handed a detailed U.S. proposal to the Cuban Foreign Ministry but received no immediate response. The Swiss have handled U.S. matters in Cuba since Washington broke relations with the Castro regime in 1961.

Seek Visa Information

Cubans seeking information and visas are forming long lines each day outside the Havana building that once housed the U.S. Embassy. Swiss Embassy personnel use it now.

"It's fiesta time in Cuba after six years of mourning," said Austicio Caldes, 38, a circus trapeze artist who arrived in Miami, Fla., Friday with the first refugee group.

Another of the group, Ramon Rosales, 61, said: "If Castro allows the full exodus, he may be left alone."

The U.S. State Department, seeking a safe and orderly exodus, urged exiles in Miami not to set out by boat to bring out more Cubans and asked them to wait until proper governmental arrangements are worked out.

U.S. Casualties Are Moderate In Sharp Battle

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A 20-truck convoy of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division was ambushed by the Viet Cong Friday night and the Americans suffered moderate casualties, a military spokesman said.

The Communist guerrillas let the lead security vehicles and the first part of the convoy pass, then blasted the eight or nine vehicles in the rear with mines, mortars and automatic weapons fire.

A 20-minute fight followed and the Americans finally continued along the road, the spokesman said.

Ambush Is Biggest

The ambush occurred just south of Phuoc Vinh, about 40 miles north of Saigon, where elements of the "Big Red One," as the division is known, have been conducting an operation.

The ambush was described as the biggest in which U.S. forces have been caught in the Viet Nam war.

A reconnaissance unit swept the area before the convoy was ambushed but made no contact with the Viet Cong, the spokesman said. The convoy was a company-sized unit, which normally consists of between 100 and 200 men, he said.

A big U.S. and Australian operation on the edge of the Viet Cong's war zone D, about 30 miles north of Saigon, continued today but only sporadic contact with the enemy was reported.

Gas Bunkers

A U.S. military spokesman said the paratroopers from the 173rd Airborne Brigade used a small amount of non-lethal tear gas Friday in an effort to flush out Communist guerrillas from tunnels and bunkers.

The spokesman said the results were not satisfactory because the tunnels were apparently empty.

It was the first authorized use of nonlethal gas since last January. When news of that operation leaked out in March, it caused such a world-wide furor that use of tear gas was discontinued.

The spokesman said the allied forces encountered sporadic but continuous sniper fire as they looked for the Viet Cong and destroyed enemy installations in capital of Ben Cat.

Moderate casualties were inflicted on the paratroopers Friday when the Viet Cong mined an armored personnel carrier moving into Ben Cat along Highway 13.

Offensive Launched

Thousands of troops launched the offensive Friday, after two assaults by Guam-based B52 bombers. U.S. authorities reported "significant contact" but reports from the scene said the fighting was not so heavy as reports first had indicated.

The B52s struck again today—this time at suspected Viet Cong targets near Hue, about 395 miles northeast of Saigon. It was the 42nd announced raid by the eight-engine bombers since beginning of the Viet Nam War.

Marines Arrive

Elements of the South Korean 2nd Marine Brigade began unloading from a U.S. troop ship in the South China Sea port of Cam Ranh Bay today. They will provide security for the massive logistics buildup at the port, 180 miles northeast of Saigon.

The Marines are the first Korean combat troops to arrive in Viet Nam, except for the security forces which accompanied a Korean engineer detachment last spring.

In other developments: North Viet Nam has protested to the International Control Commission the building of Hawk missile sites at Saigon, Bien Hoa and Qui Nhon air bases in South Viet Nam, the New China News Agency reported today.

An informal source said Friday two Hawk anti-aircraft missile batteries are under construction at Bien Hoa Air Base. A U.S. military spokesman declined comment.

The Viet Cong reported today they "completely wiped out" the South Vietnamese 41st Commando Battalion in a battle near Dinh Thuy Village in Mo Cay District, Ben Tre Province, on Oct. 4.

Stolen Cannon Is Returned To Fort Mackinaw

By CLINT DUNATHAN

Escanaba's "mystery cannon," found in the woods west of the city, has been returned to its proper home — old Fort Michilimackinac at Mackinaw City on the south side of the Straits.

It was stolen from one of the Fort blockhouses about a year ago, said Mackinaw City Police Chief Louis Conant.

The thief had to be a heavy-fingered to make off with the relic, which is about 33 inches long, of solid cast brass weighing about 65 pounds, and besides this:

The cannon was held down with two heavy metal straps which had to be broken or pried off; then the thief carried the cannon down a stairway and over a five-foot metal fence topped by three strands of barbed wire. Or if he preferred, he could avoid the fence by wading into the water around the Fort stockade.

Quite Valuable

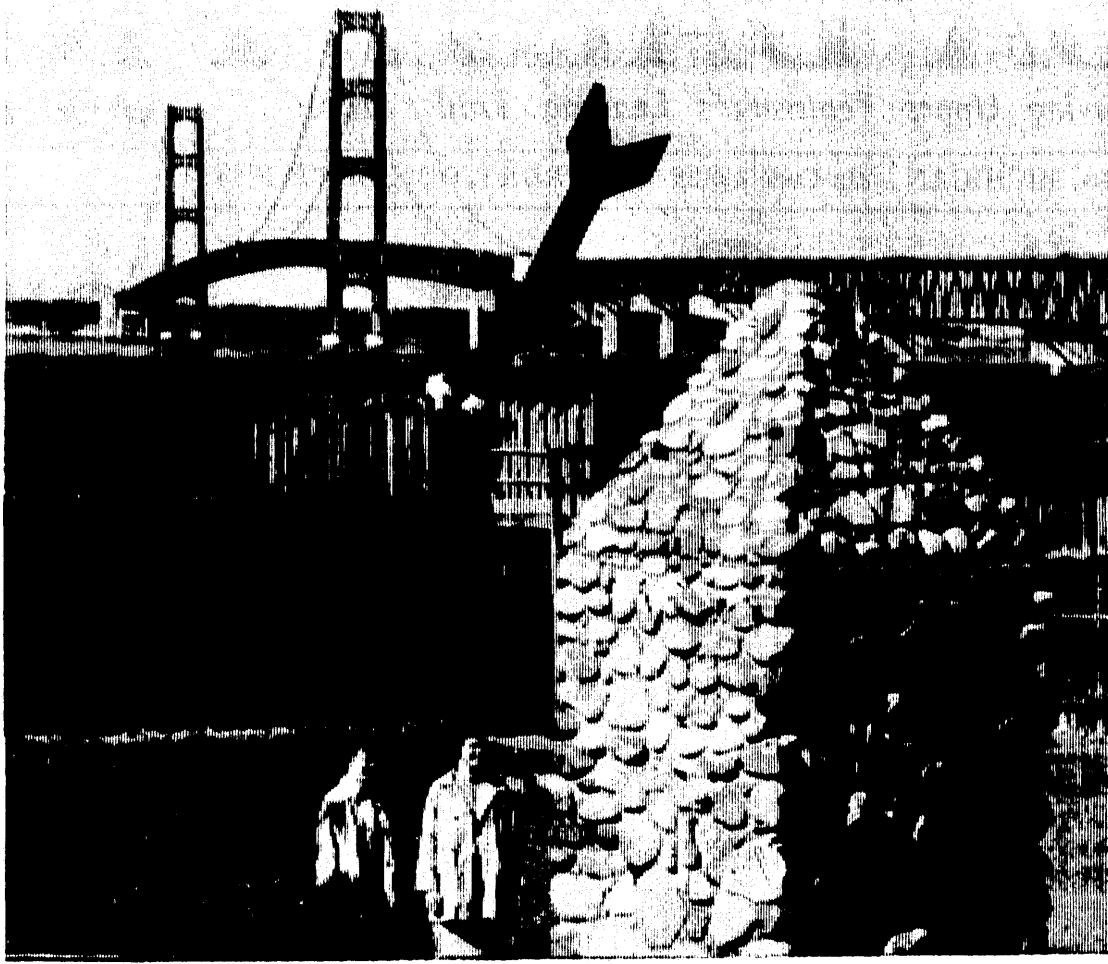

"That cannon keeps disappearing," said Chief Conant.

"This last time was about a year ago, and before that someone got it outside the fence and then abandoned it."

This time the cannon was found by Roger Gardner and Terry Terrien of Wells, who were hunting and discovered it on the ground in the woods west of the city on Oct. 2 — just a week ago today.

Roger's father, Joseph Gardner, brought the cannon to Wells and notified State Police of the Gladstone post, who took possession of it and sent out a general notice to law enforcement agencies. Mackinaw City's police chief replied that his community had a cannon missing.

"I don't know how valuable the gun is in dollars and cents, but it must have cost quite a bit," said Chief Conant. "It is the property of the State of Michigan. The old fort — and the one on Mackinac Island — are under the control of the Mackinac Island Park Commission."

ALMOST ONE YEAR AGO a brass cannon was removed from this spot at a corner of the stockade of Fort Michilimackinac at Mackinac City. Mackinac Bridge is in the background. The cannon was found near Escanaba Oct. 2.

Death Comes To Peter Aronson, City Pioneer

Peter August (P.A.) Aronson, prominently known retired pioneer business man, died Friday at 11:30 p.m. at the family home, 609 S. 10th St. He was 97.

Peter A. Aronson

One of the most active men in the community for his years, he rode his own bicycle until he was 88, and operated his own car, with an enviable record of safe driving, until he was well into the 80's.

Mr. Aronson was born March 20, 1868, in Oshkosh, Wis., Sweden, and came to Escanaba in the spring of 1888, when he was 20 years old. He opened his first shoe store in the 200 block of S. 10th St., now the site of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. plant and two years later moved the store to 910 Ludington St. where he was in business 40 years.

Keenly interested in competitive sports he was one of Escanaba's enthusiastic bicycle racers in the early days. His trophies included a large collection of medals.

He inherited his love of the water from his forebears, and in 1905 went to Benton Harbor to bring to Escanaba the pleasure launch, "Tourist," which was a familiar sight in the harbor for many years.

He and his wife celebrated their golden wedding May 15, 1961.

He was a devout member of First United Presbyterian Church, serving as an Elder many years. He was one of the oldest members of North Star Lodge, Impellant Lodge 469, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and of Delta Lodge 195, F.&A.M.

Surviving are his wife, the former Freda Peterson, one son, Orv, Grosse Pointe Farms, and three grandchildren.

Still Questions

He said that he did not know whether the cannon was an old one or whether it was a new one cast in the antique mold.

There had been speculation in the Escanaba area that the cannon might have come from the lost ship Griffin, first sailing vessel on the Great Lakes, which disappeared in a storm on northern Lake Michigan in 1679.

Representatives of the Delta County Historical Society had expressed an interest in obtaining the cannon — if the owner was not determined — for display as part of the outdoor marine museum at Municipal Dock.

Although no longer a "mystery," the State Police are still very much interested in the answers to a couple of questions: Who is the cannon-snatcher? And why was it abandoned in the woods near Escanaba?

Children Need Protection From Fire Hazards

Unfortunately fire tragedies continue to occur because many parents are so easily deceived by the faulty notion that "it can't happen here," Escanaba Fire Chief Neils Bergson said today.

Actually, the young child who is left unattended for "just a few minutes" is in great danger. A major cause of fire, in fact, is the child who has been left alone, often for just a few, fatal minutes.

The fall issue of the Junior Fire Marshal magazine, distributed to millions of school children all over the United States and Canada says "A home is never as safe as a castle unless there's a guard on duty."

"A mother preparing lunch discovered she needed something from the store. It was only a few blocks away. While she was gone, her six-year old daughter decided to feed the baby. She reached across the stove to heat the baby's bottle. Her clothing caught fire. She was fatally burned. That home was no castle — the guard was gone!"

"With winter weather coming on and heating and electrical appliances in greater use, the unattended child problem becomes acute," says Fire Chief Bergson.

As a member of the International Association of Fire Chiefs he heartily endorses the program aimed at warning parents of the importance of guarding their children at all times.

Food Services Meetings Set

Upper Peninsula food service operators will have an opportunity to meet with a Michigan State University restaurant and institutional management specialist this month to discuss menu planning, pricing and new foods and trends.

MSU Extension Specialist Gladys Knight of East Lansing will appear at two separate half-day meetings at St. Ignace, Iron Mountain and Ironwood. It is recommended that food service people attend both sessions.

Meetings are set for Oct. 11 and 20 in the American Legion Hall in St. Ignace. Both will begin at 1 p.m. and end at 4 p.m.

Restaurant operators of the central section of the Upper Peninsula are invited to sessions at Iron Mountain Oct. 13 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. in Erwin's Restaurant and on Oct. 19 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. at Pine Mountain Lodge.

Food service operators in the western Upper Peninsula are invited to Oct. 14 and 13 meetings in Ironwood.

Miss Knight urges food service operators to bring their menus along so that they can be used in workshop sessions. "Now that the summer season is over, it's a good time to look back and begin to make plans and changes for next year," she said.

TROY (UPI)—A seven-year-old boy was killed and his older brother critically injured today in a pre-dawn house fire.

Authorities said Joseph Galbraith of Troy died in the fire which broke out shortly after midnight. Listed in critical condition at a Royal Oak hospital was Ernest Galbraith, 9.

Firemen said the alarm was turned in by the boys' sister, Deborah, 13, who was the only other person in the house at the time. Cause of the fire was not determined immediately.

Net Test Is Conducted At Hermansville Lake

HERMANSVILLE — The winter kill at the Hermansville Lake had very little effect on the northern pike and perch population according to results from two trap nets and one fyke net put in the lake Wednesday afternoon and pulled out Thursday morning. Dave Johnson, with the fisheries section of the Conservation Department, Escanaba, was in charge of the netting operation with Eugene Drossart, Gladstone. The Youth Corps assisted.

According to Johnson the results indicated a good catch of pike ran smaller in size. The catch indicated a good pike population in the lake. The yellow pike showed very good size, good condition and they run heavier in weight than average for lakes in the Upper Peninsula. The netting produced a good catch of white suckers. The bullheads were extremely abundant, but small in size.

The fyke net, showed approximately 80 bullheads and 14 white suckers.

According to Johnson, if the net had been placed in the shallow and stump areas, the catch would have been greater, particularly the northern pike and yellow perch.

The development of the Hermansville Lake has been the prime project of the William Anderson Sportsmen's Club.

Gas Rates For U.P. Approved

LANSING (AP)—Public Service Commission announced approval Friday of one of the last remaining steps needed to make natural gas service available to certain areas of the Upper Peninsula.

Chairman Peter Spivak said the commission has approved natural gas rates for sale by the Michigan Gas and Electric Co. in the cities of Ishpeming, Negaunee, Marquette and Hancock; the villages of Houghton and L'Anse, and Franklin Township, Houghton County.

Michigan Gas will purchase its natural gas from Northern Natural Gas Co., which has been constructing a pipeline for the deliveries. It is expected the deliveries will start in November.

Michigan Gas has been providing propane-air gas service in Marquette, Negaunee and Ishpeming for 10 years and also has provided manufactured gas service to these areas.

Spivak said present propane-air gas customers changing to natural gas will realize substantial savings. These will range from about $2.50 a month for residential non-heating service to about $13.50 a month for space heating service during winter months.

Wisconsin Must Reform Boards Before Jan. 1

Three plans for Iron County, Wisconsin, reapportionment will be presented to Iron County residents by members of the Reapportionment Committee of the County Board of Supervisors at a public hearing in Hurley Oct. 12 at 7 p.m.

The favored plan will then be recommended to the Iron County Board by the Reapportionment Committee.

The plans were drawn up by the committee on Sept. 29 after three previous plans were disposed of upon recommendation of the Wisconsin County Board of Association.

The first two plans involved some shifting of town lines in order to obtain an equal population distribution.

The current plans will meet the requirements of the Wisconsin "one vote, one man" mandate recently handed down by the supreme court. Reapportionment must be effected in Iron County before Jan. 1, 1966.

Car Crash Kills Peninsula Woman

L'ANSE (AP)—Patricia May Kuopus, 23 of Calumet, was killed Friday in a crash involving her car and a truck on U.S. 41, 18 miles south of L'Anse.

Plan 1, providing for 19 supervisors, would group together townships to provide supervisor districts with populations ranging from 394 per supervisor to 414, and providing for one to 7 supervisors per district.

Plan 2, suggests 20 supervisors and Plan 3 would provide for 20 supervisors in different geographical and population patterns.

Plan 3, suggests 20 supervisors and Plan 3 would provide for 20 supervisors in different geographical and population patterns.

The current plans will meet the requirements of the Wisconsin "one vote, one man" mandate recently handed down by the supreme court. Reapportionment must be effected in Iron County before Jan. 1, 1966.

Escanaba Votes Nov. 2

Escanaba votes Nov. 2 in a special election on two proposals:

1. Shall the City continue to invest the funds received from the sale of the gas utility, approximately $1 million, and expand only the interest received therefrom for capital improvements?

2. Shall the City adopt Pension Act 345 for its police and firemen?

This editorial considers proposal No. 2.

It has been urged upon the Escanaba City Council by the city's police and firemen and councilmen have unanimously endorsed it.

Sgt. Richard Frederick, spokesman for the police and firemen, makes a forceful plea for local adoption of State Act 345 of 1937 setting up a special pension system for police and firemen. He says Escanaba is one of the last major U. P. cities to adopt the pension system, that Ironwood, Iron Mountain, Marquette, Menominee and the Soo already have it.

That policemen and firemen don't come under social security.

That the present police and fireman pensions are not adequate nor fair. That these two occupations are "maximum effort" jobs in which the workmen do nothing for long periods of time and then are asked to make a complete effort in emergencies. They must, to perform such hazardous duties be able-bodied and virile, and should not be asked to work on ladders or in other hazardous situations in advanced age.

Act 345 permits retirement at 55 after 25 years service instead of the present age 60.

Police and fire department work is not appealing in today's job market because of Sunday and night work. There's a large turnover and training problem as a result. Pension Plan 345 would make such employment more attractive and thus help recruitment and stabilize the service forces.

Escanaba has a police force of 19 or 20 men — not many to cover a community of 16,000 around the clock and all the year.

The pensions system proposed would mean the end of the city's present pension provisions for only its policemen and firemen and not for its other employees. All are now covered by a statewide system called the Municipal Employee Retirement Act, administered by Lawrence Farrell, formerly of Escanaba. This system provides for a pension of approximately one third of the worker's pay at 60, while Act 345 would bring firemen and policemen one-half their pay at retirement at 55 after 25 years service.

It is not a problem of the firemen and policemen, but it is of the city administration and the public, that the proposal raises the issue of discrimination. Why should policemen and firemen have a better pension plan than other city employees? It is suggested that they are in hazardous occupations and around-the-clock services which make some special treatment merited. This cause has been pleaded with great success by the state and national organizations of police and firemen elsewhere.

The proposal comes at a time of increasing government spending and of seeming expansiveness in public payment for government services. No objection has been raised to the larger pension program nor is there any prospect that there will be any opposition, although acceptance can be expected to create a "me too" reaction among other municipal employees.

The public should know the cost and other implications of the pension proposal before approval. Council was informed that the extra benefits would cost the city $22,000 a year extra to start the plan.

Retirement at 55 to assure able-bodied workers isn't mandatory under the program, only permissive.

The financial implications of the plan for a small municipality are serious. It transfers the city from an actuarially sound pension system for all its employees to special treatment of its police and firemen in a local pension system. This the Press regards as the most serious implication of the proposal and one to which Council should address its interest and examination so the public can learn what kind of a check it is signing.

In effect, approval of Act 345 means voting in a local pension system and authorizing any necessary withdrawals from the city treasury to make it actually sound. The suggested $22,000 a year extra for policemen and firemen buys no municipal service, nor any benefit except the desirable greater attraction of these services as a place of employment. Where 10 per cent is usually reckoned a reasonable charge against labor costs for a pension system, the City of Ironwood found Act 345 was costing it 33 per cent.

It would come as the state braces for the coming effect of a new Michigan law which will limit the work week for firemen to 56 hours. This will mean one duty day on and two off for firemen.

The ineligibility of police and firemen for Social Security appears a harsh discrimination on the surface. But there is no real prohibition to Social Security coverage for police and firemen. All that's necessary is a permissive state law. A dozen states have such a law. The national organizations of police and firemen oppose such permissive acts, preferring their own pension plans, like Act 345.

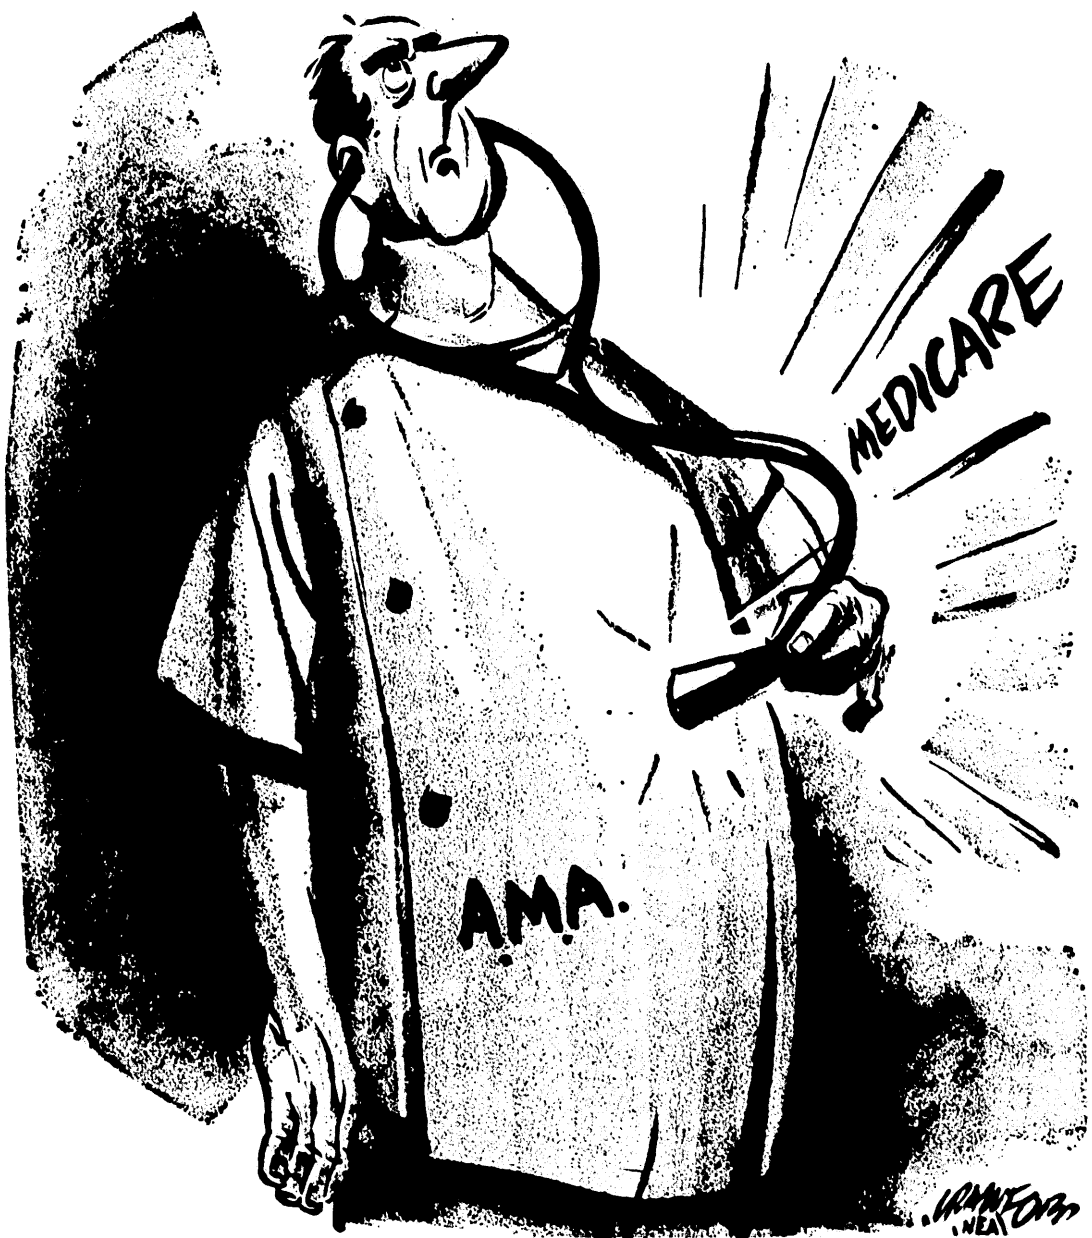

The popularity of policemen and firemen make Act 345 look like a good bet for passage here. Let Council examine the financial implications thoroughly and the fairness of the plan to other city employees and any doubts should be clarified.

The Press is impressed with some factors in this issue that recommend a "Yes" vote, apart from the considerations of merit which pose serious questions of equitable treatment of all city employees. These factors concern state and national pressures not created by our own local firemen and policemen.

The two services have promoted Act 345 into wide acceptance to get preferential treatment for their own members and they bring strong pressures upon legislators and city administrators to adopt these standards. To the city administrators who ask: "Why should the other city employees get less?" another question can be addressed: "Why should our Escanaba policemen and firemen get less than their equal numbers in other U. P. cities?"

The problem is created essentially by the decline of local government and the taking of issues to state and federal authorities, who authorize programs and then

High School Students Print City's Only Daily Newspaper

PULASKI, Wis. (AP)—Pulaski looks to its youth for news.

For 23 years, the Pulaski News, published solely by high school pupils, has been the community newspaper in this northeastern Wisconsin town of 1,540.

"This is one of the few newspapers in this area which is read from front to back," says druggist Chester Radecki.

A staff of 40 students recruits advertising, covers and writes the news and handles editing and photos with emphasis on community rather than classroom happenings. About 95 per cent of the subscribers are adults.

This fortnightly tabloid pupil publication has become so financially strong that a neighboring weekly offered $3,300 last fall to buy its subscription list. The offer was rejected.

Few of the pupils have entered journalism careers, but the newspaper's advisor, Bernard C. Olejniczak, 34, says the benefits extend beyond the profession.

"It's a real life experience," he says. "They learn to deal with people. They learn to cope with grownups on a grownup basis rather than an artificial one."

Student reporters cover village board meetings, write editorials and exchange opinions with community leaders. "They're not just kids. They're respected," says Cindy Vandeplass, 18, editor-in-chief this year.

Olejniczak added: "The board members seek us out. They want us to be there. They even take time out to explain the tax rolls."

Furniture merchant Russell LaRock, former village president, praises the paper and fought the proposed sale. "Coverage of news here is good and well guided. I would never like to see the village without it."

The letterpress publication was born with one foot in the sewer. Biology and civic classes christened it in 1942 as a propaganda vehicle to campaign for village sewer and water systems.

They succeeded. The paper, since adopted by journalism classes, has continued its civic campaigns.

"It's a wedge for industrial development," says Olejniczak, recalling an editorial effort which overcame village officials' reluctance to make land available for a new boat factory. The plant now employs 55 persons.

Olejniczak, who holds a philosophy degree from St. Norbert College but describes himself as "a bricklayer by trade," joined the faculty in 1957 as a French and Latin teacher. He became the newspaper adviser in 1959 and is now school counselor, teaching three journalism classes weekly.

"I just read the paper before it goes to bed," he says. "The students make their own assignments and do their own bill, but that's all," he says. The pupils' advertising success was underscored by the $6,000 gift they handed the high school to help finance construction of a new addition in 1959.

"They learn staying in the black is a reality the free press has to live with," says Olejniczak.

The paper has won international Quill & Scroll awards for high school journalism excellence in four of the six years Olejniczak has handled the publication. Pitfalls have been few.

"Every once in a while they get a wrong date on an auction signments and do their own bill, but that's all," he says.

The pupils' advertising success was underscored by the $6,000 gift they handed the high school to help finance construction of a new addition in 1959.

"They learn staying in the black is a reality the free press has to live with," says Olejniczak.

Austria Yankeefied

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

GRAZ, AUSTRIA—(NEA)—The Austrian industrial landscape in many places sprouts the marks of strong postwar American influence. Our help saved basic enterprises from near-disaster.

In the United States, the confirmed antirealist and contingent manager regularly to suggest that American assistance—no matter how labeled and where directed—has been virtually a total waste from its Marshall Plan beginnings in 1948.

This is, of course, a gross misrepresentation, since our first sweeping aid efforts rescued almost the whole of western Europe from the brink. Austria is a stunning exhibit.

Many miles northwest of here, heavy trucks groan up the terraced slopes of Austria's famous Erzberg, a mountain of iron supplying its steel industry. "The trucks are a Marshall Plan contribution," says a mining company official.

The big steel mill at Donawitz off to the southeast was one of the first enterprises in Austria to get such aid. The new equipment was vital in restoring a plant stripped of 10,000 tons of machinery by the rapacious Russians.

In a village much closer to Graz, the same story is heard refer them back to the local communities for financing, contributing not a dime to the extra expense involved. Act 345 is only one of dozens of such actions which might be cited by local governments like the city council and county board of supervisors.

Such legislation puts local officials on a hot spot. They don't have to oppose firemen and policemen in their self-betterment efforts, but they have an obligation of office to treat all government employees fairly.

25 YEARS AGO

Ray Eis, well known Escanaba youth who enlisted in the U.S. Army a short time ago, and is located at Chanute Field, Ill., has been appointed a leader of a platoon of 48 men, it was reported.

Taking advantage of the very few scoring opportunities their opponents allowed, Escanaba high school gridders scored on three quick thrusts to defeat the heavy, aggressive Menominee high school team 20-6 before several thousand people at the Walton Blesch field in Menominee.

50 YEARS AGO

Six members of the Escanaba city football team traveled to Ishpeming where they were defeated by the Hemetite city aggregation by a score of 32 to 0. Several members of the local team missed the early morning train north and were unable to make the trip, it being necessary for the local management to fill out the team with players from Negaunee. The Ishpeming team averaged 190 pounds while the average weight of the local team was less than 150 pounds.

Teen Behavior Shows Change

Dear Ann Landers: A group of us (all parents) were discussing what goes on with teenagers today. Some insisted that kids are no wilder than we were when we were teenagers. These people claimed beleaguered teens are just getting a lot of bad publicity, that the subject of teen-age sexual promiscuity has been beaten to death, that today's kids are the scapegoats for all the ills of a crazy, mixed up world.

My wife and I would be interested in hearing what you have to say. — MR. AND MRS. DEAR. M.: MOST teens are darned good kids, and when you look at the examples set by some of their parents, they look even better.

Statistics indicate that conditions are NOT precisely the same today as when we were teenagers. There are more kids in trouble today. The trouble is more serious and it comes at an earlier age than ever before. Yes, there are more teenagers, but I am referring to percentages, not numbers.

In the last 20 years, the percentage of unwed mothers has tripled. Since 1957 the V. D. rate has tripled. (More than 60 per cent of the cases of REPORTED V. D. fall in the 13-19 years old group.)

Teen marriages are way up. Divorce is on the increase, and one reason is the sad record of teen-age marriages. (Such marriages have one-fifth as good a chance of succeeding as a marriage between a couple in their middle 20's.)

Teen crime is up. Teen drinking is up. Teen car accidents are up. If this picture doesn't reflect a change in teen-age behavior, then I'm the Queen of Sheba.

Dear Ann Landers: I'll bet you are sick of mother-in-law problems and I hate to bother you with mine, but I need your help.

My husband and I have been married two years. He was transferred to another city five months ago and it was a God-send. His mother would not leave us alone for even one day. I was going out of my mind trying to be nice to her even though she was at our front door before my husband left for work in the morning.

Now that we have moved 200 miles away she says her heart is acting up and she knows she isn't long for this world. So we drive 400 miles every other weekend to see her. She insists that we stay at her house. My

Gilbault Field Gift To Public

BARK RIVER — For several months the Bark River Lions Recreation Committee members Joseph Potvin and Henry W. Boyle, have been working to acquire the area in Shafter which has been used for years as a play ground.

The triangular area has a 550 foot frontage and depth of 650 feet and is located between the Chicago & North Western ore line and County Road 535 just west of Shafter. It consists of 14 lots which is all of Block 11 and one lot in Block 10 for a total of 15 lots and is the present baseball diamond.

Tuesday evening, Joseph Gilbault of Shafter deeded the property to the Bark River Township Board for recreational purposes and it will be called the Gilbault Memorial Field in memory of Joseph Gilbault and his sister, the late Lt. Marguerite Gilbault, R.N., who served in the U.S. Navy during World War I, and who died in 1963. Mr. Gilbault is a retired farmer.

In 1963 the two donated the Bourdeau residence adjacent to the Shafter School and the school and property to Sacred Heart Church.

The Gilbault Memorial Field has been used for the youth's summer baseball program for the past 11 years. One hundred twenty boys from eight through 17 years of age participated each summer. Rev. J. Noel Arnett organized the baseball program in 1954 with a few local boys but so many boys clamored to play that it expanded to include boys from Hyde, Bark River, Danforth, Harris, Wilson, Spalding, Powers, Perronville, LaBranche as well as Shafter.

When Fr. Arnett was transferred to Stambaugh last June the Shafter Baseball Association was organized with Robert Robinette president; Louis LeClair, secretary; Francis Glovacki, treasurer. The 10 managers of the two leagues, Pee Wee and Junior, serve as voting members of the board of directors.

The association plans to build dugouts, a new backstop, bleachers, a permanent backfield fence and improve the grounds.

Charged were Carmel Stubbs 37; Bethany Ashburn 30, Wanda McCoy 21 and Jane Smith 29.

State Police reported clothing valued at an estimated $1,250 was found in the car in which the four were traveling. The clothing is at the State Police post in Gladstone.

The investigation is continuing while the quartet serve their jail sentences.

Four Jailed For Larceny

MANISTIQUE — Four Flint persons entered guilty pleas on charges of larceny in Justice Court Friday and were assessed fines of $100 and given 60 days in jail.

The four were arrested by Gladstone State Police and returned here for trial. The charge stems from theft of five deer skin jackets from a local gift and sporting goods shop on U. S. 2.

The car in which the four were riding had a large amount of clothing, mostly women's. A marijuana cigarette was in the pocket of one garment.

Grand Ole Opry Pleases Large Audience At Gym

Grand Ole Opry delighted an audience of nearly 2,000 at the Escanaba Area High School gym Friday night, reports Don Lang, program manager of WLST, which sponsored the three hour show of the Nashville, Tenn., country music troupe.

Red Sovine was emcee and Tex Ritter was in the star spot, with his famed renditions of Hillbilly Heaven, Wreck of Old 97, Boll Weevil Song and Rye Whisky. Little Jimmy Dickens, Dolores Smiley and Mac Wiseman and the Tennessee Valley Boys completed the cast. They won a warm reception from the area's country music fans.

U.S. Propaganda Worries Hanoi, Officials Believe

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Top U.S. information officials here believe their propaganda program directed at North Viet Nam is reaching a wide audience and has aroused the concern of the Hanoi regime.

These officials early in the summer were uncertain of the program's effectiveness. But they say the North Vietnamese government now is reacting strongly. They acknowledge there is no indication that the Communists necessarily feel threatened by it.

Leaflets Dropped
Since April, U.S. and Vietnamese aircraft have dropped more than 32 million leaflets over North Viet Nam while the U.S. and South Vietnamese governments have stepped up propaganda broadcasts beamed at the North Vietnamese people.

The U.S. Information Service here has reported to Washington that "North Viet Nam officials admit that some people... have believed what they read or heard... and that some inquisitive people have become disseminators of this propaganda."

The report added that the Hanoi government has issued directives which "appear to equate countering the enemy propaganda arguments with stepping up its defenses against air attacks and carrying out evacuation measures."

Draws Comment
Hanoi Radio has broadcast against the leaflet drops. Officials here reason they would not call attention to the propaganda unless they felt it was having an effect.

One broadcast said North Vietnamese were turning over the leaflets to authorities and quoted one of the inhabitants:

"I feel confident that no matter how violent and cunning the U.S. imperialists may be, the psychological warfare they are striving to carry out against our people will certainly meet with ignominious failure."

U.S. planes have been hampered in efforts to drop the leaflets over the major population centers of Hanoi and Haiphong because Soviet-built missiles ring both cities. Winds were used once to carry leaflets over Haiphong. Officials say similar drops are planned in the Red River delta between the two cities.

90 Areas Showered
About 90 areas have been showered with colorful leaflets created by the South Vietnamese government's Department of Psychological Warfare. Toys and school supplies also have been dropped over the north in small gift packages.

Voice of America broadcasts are made 6 1/2 hours a day to North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam's "Voice of Freedom" is on the air 8 1/2 hours.

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

A Michigan Tech faculty member sends a clipping from the Detroit Free Press of a St. Louis Post-Dispatch editorial, with the comment: "You'll find the attached of humorous interest."

"President Johnson is going to stop giving away $1.11 pens and start giving away 17-cent ones, a slash of 84 per cent in unit costs if ever we saw one."

"This is, however, the quantitative approach, and we cannot help wondering whether the qualitative might not work better with a man as prone to parting with a pen as Lyndon Johnson. In other words, give away a good deal better pens and a great deal fewer."

"A $1.11 pen is just not presidential caliber, and we are constantly receiving 17 cent pens from people who are not even president of their local PTA. If President Johnson would stick to a good $5 pen, say, the reflection that he was giving away something worth real dough might help him to be more selective."

"As things stand the President gave away 587 pens at the last five signings and the Associated Press reported that all told he has given them away 'by the hundreds or probably by the thousands.'"

"If he keeps on at this rate it is going to become progressively less of a distinction to own a Johnson pen. We merely point out to the President that Parisians have a saying that the only ones in their midst who do not belong to the Legion of Honor are the guards on the Metro; and that in our country it has been rumored there is a man in one of the more remote parts of the Upper Michigan Peninsula who owns a book by Harriet Kane what is not autographed."

"So we want to go all that way with LBJ pens?"

An Escanaba physician who is both bright and puckish has suggested to the Press that it can gain national note and tickle some funnybones by asking editorially why President Johnson didn't have a Negro on the surgical team that took out his gall bladder?

We're not even sure that he didn't and certainly he wouldn't have drawn the color line if his medical chief had picked one. Our doctor friend said that Howard University in Washington, a Negro school, has a very distinguished Negro chief of surgery in its medical school, connected with Freedman's Hospital. This hospital doesn't discriminate against whites, so its only fair that the white hospitals not discriminate against Negroes, it was suggested.

A surgical staff for the President fields more men than a football team and if Mr. Johnson didn't have a Negro on it somebody goofed and Mr. Johnson will probably have him scalped for being so unpolitically medically proficient.

Newspaper Guild, New York Times Reach Agreement

NEW YORK (AP) — The strikebound New York Times and the AFL-CIO New York Newspaper Guild have reached a tentative contract agreement.

If the Guild ratifies it, it will mean the end of the city's partial newspaper shutdown, now 24 days old.

Negotiators for the Times and Guild accepted the contract formula Friday at the urging of Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

It was the same settlement plan that both sides had rejected the day before.

Thomas J. Murphy, executive vice president of the New York Guild, predicted Times guild membership would accept the contract at a meeting Sunday.

John J. Gaherin, president of the Publishers Association of New York, said member papers which had shut down in support of the Times would resume publishing as soon as possible.

Gaherin said three papers which publish Sunday editions — the Daily News, the Journal-American and the Long Island Press — would try to have them out Sunday.

The other shutdown papers — the World Telegram and Sun and the Long Island Star-Journal, were expected to resume publication Monday. Both are afternoon dailies, as are the Journal-American and Long Island Press.

The Times, a morning paper, said it could not resume publication before Monday.

Deadline
MADISON — Midnight Monday, Oct. 11, is the deadline for deer hunters to apply for 25,000 available Wisconsin deer hunt party permits.

Fishery Meet Slated Monday

All persons and government agencies concerned with commercial fishing in Lake Superior have been invited to attend an industry-wide conference in Marquette, Monday, at Northern Michigan University.

The conference is expected to bring together as many as 100 fishermen, processing plant representatives and government experts.

William F. Carbine, regional director of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, Ann Arbor, will preside.

Congressman Raymond Clevenger said the conference will deal with innovations in fishing techniques, processing, packaging and marketing.

The Bureau of Commercial Fisheries has conducted an 18-month technical assistance program for UPCAP to explore methods of making the Lake Superior commercial fishery more profitable. The results of the study will be reviewed and analyzed at the conference.

Hijackers Grab $380,000 Load Of Silver Bars

LAGRANGE, Ind. (AP)—FBI agents joined Indiana state police today in a hunt for two missing semitrailer trucks with valuable but highly dissimilar cargoes—$380,000 worth of silver bars and $50,000 worth of chicken feathers.

Bart Cole, 55, Chicago, driver of the bullion truck, reported three or four men kidnapped him when he stopped for coffee on the Indiana toll road near LaGrange. He was dumped out of a car on the south edge of Chicago Friday.

Cole was taking the silver from Chicago to Newark, N.J., but names of the consignee and shipper were not given to Indiana police.

Bontrager Trucking Co., Goshen, Ind., reported Friday the load of chicken feathers from this poultry raising center was overdue in New York after leaving Sept. 29. Richard E. Parker, Goshen, was driving. The 25,000 pounds of feathers were destined for armed services pillows and comforters.

Escanaba police are investigating acts of malicious destruction of property Friday night in which windows were broken in Lee's Studio, 1900 Lexington St., and at the Phoenix Lumber Co. office.

A traffic court summons has been issued by Escanaba police to Nicholas Thiry, 320 S. 13th St., for failing to yield the right of way.

UPCAP Granted Aid Extension In Poverty War

Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Progress has been granted a two month extension of federal aid for giving technical assistance to Upper Peninsula agencies working on the economic opportunity program.

Harold Dettman of St. Ignace, chairman of UPCAP, announced today.

Action of the Washington Office of Economic Opportunity in holding up release of a $99,000 grant to UPCAP had threatened its payroll and operations.

The 60-day extension of aid will give the Upper Peninsula economic development agency a breather to resolve its difficulties with Washington about eligibility for federal aid.

The Office of Economic Opportunity has made no demands upon UPCAP to restructure itself for eligibility, but has ruled it ineligible in its present format, said Dettman. He said that Upper Peninsula county boards of supervisors, which created UPCAP four years ago and which support it financially, would be asked in their annual meeting next Monday to pass a model resolution.

Reform Suggested
It would grant the delegate body of UPCAP broad powers to restructure itself to include the elements necessary for eligibility for federal OES grants. The OES game of cat and mouse with UPCAP stresses inclusion of the new Community Action Agencies which will administer the economic opportunity program (War on Poverty) in 6 U.P. districts, but some supervisors indicated belief that the political heat is coming from the universities which serve the U.P. They asked a policy-making role in UPCAP, in which they have a strong advisory influence, and UPCAP's delegate body failed to act on the matter at its Sept. 28 meeting in Escanaba.

The model resolution proposed by Dettman would give the delegates from the county boards to UPCAP power to change its organization to carry out private, state or federal programs of economic development.

Grants Announced
Dettman was informed that OEO had not acted formally on the extension, but that action would be forthcoming, and that UPCAP would get a 60-day proportion of the grant for assistance to economic development agencies in the U.P. UPCAP officers said the extension created new problems instead of solving the old. Cited was the small loan program, which they said could not be staffed on a two month basis.

Dettman was told that the OEO had granted a $79,000 fund to the Marquette-Alger Community Action Agency to staff its office, and $50,000 to the Houghton-Keweenaw-Baraga CAA for its office. These grants complete financing of four of the 6 U.P. agencies.

Earlier the Chippewa-Mackinac-Luce agency and the Menominee - Delta - Schoolcraft agencies were financed.

Calumet Strike Talks To Resume

CALUMET (AP) — Further negotiations in the seven week old Calumet & Hecla Co. strike will resume here Oct. 18.

Federal and state mediators announced the transfer of negotiations here after a series of talks in Chicago failed to resolve the wage and pension issues involved in contract talks between the company and the United Steelworkers Union.

Some 1,600 workers have been idled by the strike.

Calumet & Hecla offered the union a three year contract calling for a 10 cent hourly wage increase the first year; increased pension benefits the second year, and for a 10 cent hourly pay hike the third year.

Union spokesmen have asked for a 40 cent hourly package over a two year contract.

Detroit Seaway Trade Booms
DETROIT (AP)—Already past the one million ton mark, Detroit's foreign trade through the St. Lawrence Seaway may reach 1.25 million tons before the season closes, Charles E. Jackson, president of the Port of Detroit Operators Association, said Friday.

Jackson said tonnage through Sept. 30 was 1,066,582 compared with the record 854,033 for 1964. This is a gain of 212,549 tons with more than two months of the shipping season remaining, he noted, adding the final two months is normally the busiest period of the year.

"The year 1965 may well top the previous record year of 1964 by a half a million tons," he said, adding that some of the growth could be traced to the recent steel strike threat.

Ship calls at the Port of Detroit totaled 796 through Sept. 30 compared with 820 last year, also a record.

Hints from Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:

If you take a hot ice pick and make a hole in the handle of either the plastic half-gallon or the one-gallon size (about one inch from the pouring spout), the bleach will pour out smoothly, and no more spattering.

Teeny Schweirs

Well, I'll be doggoned! This is the discovery of the century. I flitted to the kitchen in jig-time to try this one.

It works. Fantastically. Instead of that of bleach going "blub-plub" in spurts, it poured out like the fountain of youth.

Be sure to make the hole on top of the handle about one inch from the neck of the plastic bleach bottle.

And, jolly-ho to Teeny for tipping us off on this one. I am sure it will prevent lots of spatters on good clothes.

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

For those who have louvered closet doors made of slats: Try taping a piece of plastic on the inside.

This keeps the dust from coming through the spaces in the door and onto your clothes. It really helps!

Lynn Nichols, 15

Dear Heloise:

Use the mate of a lost kid glove for making leather buttons—so popular for sports clothes.

Cut leather circles and gather around old plastic buttons, or use metal button frames.

Sharon Miller

Letter Of Laughter

Dear Heloise:

I think I have found the kookiest use for your nylon net ever. I made a guppie nursery out of it.

My mother guppie, without so much as a by-your-leave, gave birth to umpteen babies one day when I was unprepared for such an event, so I had to think quickly of something to protect the little ones.

I made a fair-sized bag of nylon net, stuffed in some aquarium weed, and let it float in the tank.

Lo and behold, all the little babies zipped through the little spaces into the net, and the crisis was met.

I'm pleased to report that mother and children are doing fine.

Helen Graham
I'm sure glad. Bless you!

Dear Heloise:

When my children have visitors from the neighborhood, and they must be home at a certain time, I set the timer to remind them when their time is up, so they will not be late.

Who can argue with a timer?

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

A neighbor came visiting while I was painting our chests of drawers in the bedroom.

I had removed the knobs and had just starting painting them, and my hands already were a real mess. She suggested that I push the screw of each knob through a piece of cardboard, hold onto the screw, and then paint the knobs!

Works slick as a whistle, twice as fast, and no more paint on my hands.

Ellen C.

Dear Heloise:

Ever get up in the morning feeling sure that you must have spent at least half the night tugging for your fair share of the covers?

Try putting one blanket about six or eight inches further to one side of the bed than the other then put another blanket further to the opposite side of the bed.

You will have a double thickness on top of the bed—and enough EXTRA blanket on either side of it so that you won't have to worry about the cold air hitting you.

Cora

Dear Heloise:

Shirt sleeves were always tangling around other clothes (or the agitator) in my washing machine until I latched on to this idea:

I button each cuff to one of the buttons on the shirt front! Simple, eh?

Sarah

Dear Heloise:

In school we are required to date all homework, class papers, etc., and you know how hard it is to remember the current date.

I taped a small, pocket calendar to the front of my homework notebook now I always know the correct date.

Ellen Bates

Dear Heloise:

You're a real smart cookie to think of that.

It's great.

Dear Heloise:

What a blessing for school kiddies!

I use plastic sweater bags to put their school books in on rainy days.

No more worries over wet books and papers, and the kiddies get a kick out of having raincoats for their books!

Jo

Dear Heloise:

I wonder if people are aware that they can put their feather bed pillows in those beautiful tumble dryers, and the pillows will fluff up like magic!

I usually do this without heat, but for anyone who has a dryer on which the heat cannot be turned off, if used on low heat, it will do the same job.

You talk about feathers fluffing up!

The pillows smell nice and clean, too.

Harold M.

Dear Heloise:

At the end of the summer, if you or your teenager's favorite cotton shirts or sheaths are too short for next year...

Wear them "as is" under that new fall skirt as a blouse-slip combination.

Dorothy Snyder

Dear Heloise:

My sons are so forgetful when it comes to taking a handkerchief when going to school, etc.

When I iron their pants, I slip a clean handkerchief in one of the pockets.

Nation's Economy Continues To Roll

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen this week pondered the effects of President Johnson's hospitalization, debated over rising interest rates and heard of a possible tightening of U.S. corporate investments abroad.

The immediate result: little. The nation's economy, still rolling on its record peacetime expansion, scarcely paused for breath.

Major corporations continue back-to-school sales higher than a year ago and automobile makers prepared to turn out 886,000 new-model cars this month. National unemployment figures stood at their lowest level in nearly eight years.

At the bottom of the economy's strength, said economists, was the confidence of the average American consumer. A University of Michigan study said that despite widespread concern over the war in Viet Nam, consumers feel things at home will remain good or improve. The study concluded that Americans feel there is less likelihood of a recession today than at any other time the last 15 years.

Minimum Wage Action Dead

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to increase the minimum wage and extend its coverage is dead for the year.

Democrats on the House Education and Labor Committee decided Thursday not to press for action when the chairman, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., couldn't get agreement on a scaled-down bill.

The committee had approved a bill to raise the current $1.25-an-hour minimum to $1.75 and extend coverage to 7.9 million workers. There was little support for the measure elsewhere in Congress, and a more modest bill failed to win committee agreement.

Powell said the committee will try again next year, holding hearings and then drafting a new bill.

Holy Name Snaps Losing Streak Against Emeralds

By RAY CRANDALL
(Press Sports Editor)

MANISTIQUE — The Holy Name Crusaders snapped their season long losing streak with a 6-0 decision over Manistique under most unlikely circumstances here Friday night.

First, the host Emeralds were keyed by impressive homecoming activities.

Second, Coach Dick Bonifas' Crusaders were geared for revenge after missing a perfect season last year with a loss to Holy Name in the final game.

Third, the game was played on a slick, slippery field in a steady drizzle, which just about wiped out any possibility for an aerial attack or a sweeping running game.

Coach John Kircher's Crusaders had lost four straight starts entering the contest while the Emeralds had won three of five.

Holy Name had a slight edge in the final statistics, but the teams battled on even terms for the most part. One of the major factors in the outcome was Holy Name's alert pass defense that snared three Manistique aeriels, John Lark, Tom Menard and Dale Shandonay were the defenders who grabbed the enemy tosses.

In the rushing department the Crusaders gained 163 yards while the Emeralds picked up 157. Bob Brisco churned for 86 and Bob Fodor 66 for Holy Name. Doug Nelson, Jerry Belleville and Greg Soukup shared the Emerald running attack.

In the air, Lark tossed five and completed three for 23 yards, with one intercepted. Nelson and Dave Barton handled the Emerald passing, tossing 10 and completing only one for four yards.

Brisco, in one of his best prep performances, scored the lone touchdown of the game in the third period on a 10 yard blast up the middle. The kick for the point was wide.

Lark set up the touchdown with a fifty yard return which covered 35 yards to the mid-field stripe. Fodor ripped off gains of 7 and 15 yards. Lark chewed up 10 and Brisco slashed for 5 to set the stage for his 10 yard scoring run.

The Crusaders took the opening kickoff and drove 60 yards to the Manistique 10 before Lark's fourth down pass was intercepted by Belleville.

After an exchange of punts, Manistique staged a major drive, 75 yards to the Holy Name 10 before losing the ball on downs.

The Crusaders grabbed their first interception, by Lark, late in the third period and drove to the Manistique 29 before surrendering the ball.

Menard took his turn at largeny early in the fourth quarter and again Holy Name threatened before running out of gas on the Manistique 21.

Shandonay stole the third Manistique pass at midfield late in the game and Holy Name ran the clock down to 27 seconds before Wiles booted a 34 yard punt out of bounds on the Manistique 19 yard line.

Nelson missed on three pesses and ran the ball for 23 yards in the closing seconds of action. Manistique returns to Great Lakes Conference competition Friday in a home stand against Marquette. Holy Name will be idle next weekend.

Alpena Nips Eskymos 6-0

ALPENA — The Escanaba Eskymos won the battle of statistics here Friday night but the Alpena Wildcats won the game, 6-0.

The Eskymos dominated every phase of the contest and staged two serious scoring threats on the Alpena gridiron that was a sea of mud with rain falling through the entire second half.

Alpena exploded once in the game and it was enough for victory. The Wildcats scored the only touchdown midway in the second period when Russ Courtney, 175 pound junior full-back, broke outside right tackle, squirmed away from a tackle and went 37 yards to paydirt.

A pass interception preceded the Alpena touchdown as Tim Loutes swiped a Steve Anzalone aerial on the Alpena 29 and returned to midfield. A run and a pass to Loutes put the ball on the Esky 37 from where Courtney broke away for his TD jaunt.

Statistics give the Eskymos a big bulge in the game. Escanaba picked up 13 first downs to Alpena's 6. The Eskymos ripped off 173 yards on the ground against 98 for the Wildcats. Escanaba gained 38 yards through the air to 25 for Alpena. Escanaba backs lugged the ball 53 times against only 22 for Alpena.

Trailing 6-0, Escanaba made a determined bid for at least a tie in the final minutes of action. The Eskymos drove deep into Alpena territory with Anzalone and Bob Haack hooking up on a 31 yard pass. With the ball on the 5 yard line on first down, the Eskymos punched out a yard on two running plays, tried a pass that failed and lost two yards on an attempted end sweep. They surrendered the ball on downs on the 7 yard line with only 12 seconds remaining in the game.

The Eskymos staged their other serious threat following the second half kickoff. They dug out ground yardage from their 16, across midfield and deep to the Alpena 22 before losing the ball on a fourth down run that was a foot short.

Escanaba had another golden opportunity in the third quarter when Ed Gauthier recovered a fumble on the Alpena 30. The Eskymos, however, fumbled back on the following play.

Gauthier and Jack Long were outstanding on defense for the Eskymos while Jim Hansen and Mike King were tough both ways.

Haack took individual rushing honors with 81 yards while Payment added 45 and John Anderson 42.

The Eskymos are on the road again next week, traveling to Marinette for a Saturday night game.

Colt Offense Careless Crew

BALTIMORE (AP) — Such strong defenses as those of Baltimore and Detroit ought to make for a dull National Football League game on the surface Sunday. But not the way the offenses have played table tennis with the ball.

The Colts fumbled 11 times and saw five passes by quarterback John Unitas intercepted while they won two of their three games.

The Lions are undefeated despite eight fumbles and six of quarterback Milt Plum's passes having been stolen.

The defenses have stood up for the Western Conference rivals. Detroit leads the NFL overall by yielding only 601 yards and the Colts have allowed the least yards running, 248.

The Lions pass defenders also are setting the loop pace with 11 interceptions. The Colts have five.

But the Colts' secondary is weakened with veteran Lenny Lyles out because of a sprained knee, and his replacement Alvin Hammond is bothered by a groin injury suffered in practice Friday.

Other offensive statistics show the Lions have scored only seven touchdowns and the Colts eight. The Colts were the highest scorers in the league last season when they topped the conference crown.

Another individual match the fans will be watching closely is between fullback Joe Don Looney of the Lions and Colt middle linebacker Dennis Gaubatz. They changed teams in a pre-season trade.

Crystal Falls, Top U.P. Team, Shellacks Foe

By The Associated Press

The top-rated teams in the Associated Press Michigan High School Football Poll played true to form Friday night and racked up an impressive list of shutouts.

Bay City Central is tied with Pontiac Central, 3-0, in that league. Pontiac Central the AP's third-ranked Class A team plays Bay City Handy, also undefeated but with one tie this season, today in Pontiac.

Albion, also 4-0, marched to its 14th straight victory with halfback Rick Burlingame scoring twice in the first quarter, and halfback Clip Van Schoick gaining two more touchdowns in the second quarter.

Powell Red Hot Pass Reciever Against Pats

By The Associated Press

BOSTON (AP) — Oakland end Art Powell, a widely traveled nine-year pro at the age of 28, is proving to American Football League rivals that he deserves a little more respect.

Powell, who combines a solid 212 pounds with a track sprinter's speed, wrecked Boston defenses by grabbing 11 passes, including two for touchdowns, Friday night as the Raiders handed the hapless Patriots their fifth straight defeat, 24-10.

"Powell can kill anybody when he gets hot," said Oakland Coach Al Davis, after his first victory in six games against Eastern foes.

Powell picked up 206 yards with his 11 receptions, boosting his totals for the year to 427 yards on 27 catches.

In the first period, Flores' pass toward the left sideline was nearly intercepted by Chuck Shonta, who gambled with a clear field in front of him. Shonta tipped the ball and Powell grabbed it, taking off on his long scoring run.

With fourth down and goal to go at the Boston two in the third period, Flores called upon Powell again. This time the big end in front of Ross O'Hanley to make a diving catch.

Flores connected on 20 of 34 passes for 261 yards as the Raiders boosted their record to 3-2. Clem Daniels complemented the overhead attack by carrying 20 times for 113 yards, including 57 on a dash which helped set up a fourth period touchdown by Roger Hagberg.

Two other AFL games are scheduled for Sunday, with San Diego at Buffalo, and Kansas City at Denver. New York and Houston are idle.

The key game is the meeting between undefeated Buffalo, 4-0, and the Chargers, 3-1. The Bills rule a slight favorite despite the loss of ends Elbert Dubenion and Glenn Bass. San Diego will be bolstered by the return of fullback Keith Lincoln, who missed the Chargers' first four games with a thigh injury.

Pro Football Takes Over Baseball-Mad Minnesota

By The Associated Press

Pro football takes over in baseball-ecstatic Minnesota to night when the home of the triumphant Twins becomes the playing ground for the Vikings and New York Giants.

Their National Football League game was shifted from Sunday to insure that the field at Metropolitan Stadium could be put back in shape before the possible return of the World Series.

Another big one in the NFL Saturday night puts the Pittsburgh Steelers against the Browns at Cleveland. On Sunday — the Detroit Lions play the Colts at Baltimore, the San Francisco 49ers meet the Packers at Green Bay, the Philadelphia Eagles and Cowboys play at Dallas, the St. Louis Cardinals face the Redskins at Washington and the Los Angeles Rams take on the Bears at Chicago.

Sunday's only games in the

Twins Are Now 3-1 Favorites In Series

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Minnesota Twins, still to suffer the pangs of World Series defeat, limped into the third game against the Los Angeles Dodgers today with outfielders Tony Oliva and Bob Allison hobbled by pulled leg muscles.

The American League champions held a 2-0 advantage over the National League titleholders, winning the first two games, 8-2 and 5-1, in Minnesota.

Veteran right-hander Camilo Pascual was Manager Sam Mele's choice to try to make it three in a row for the Twins.

Dodger Manager Walter Alston countered with left-hander Claude Osteen, who beat the Twins five for five as an American League.

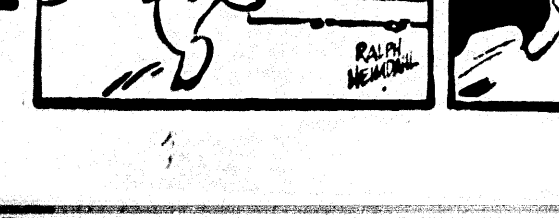

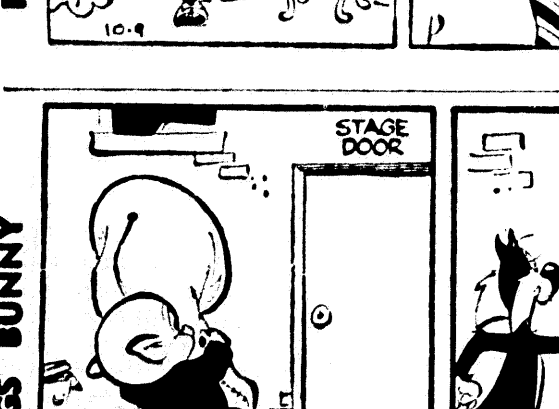

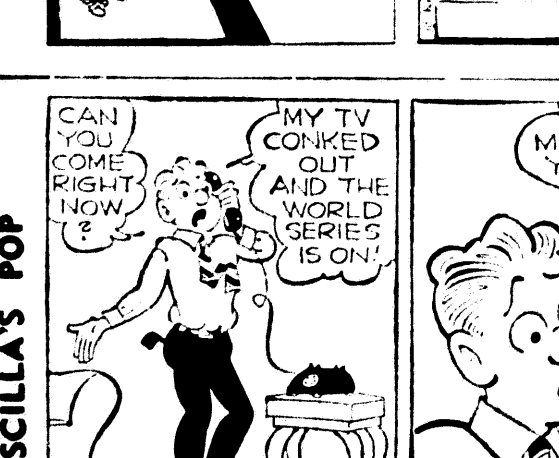

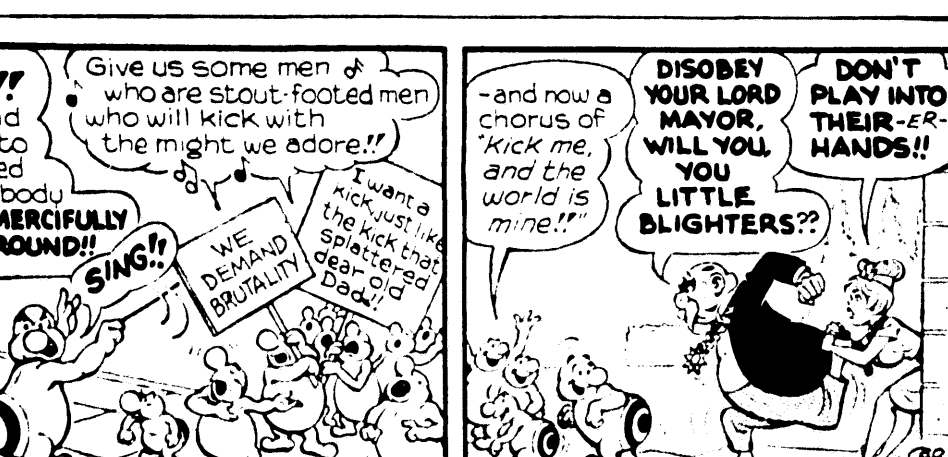

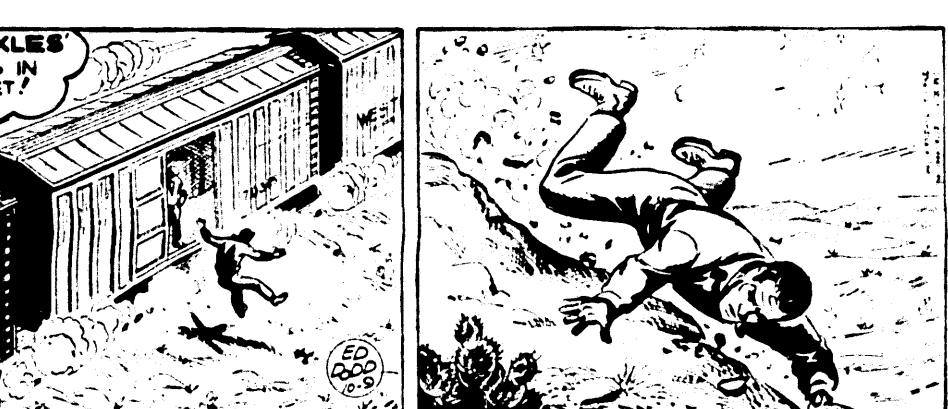

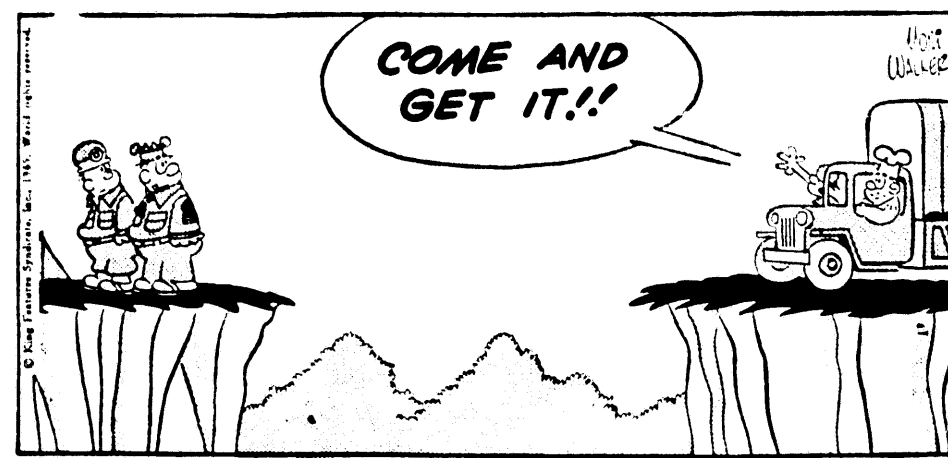

While the Twins ruled a 3-1 favorite to win the Series, the Dodgers were made a 13-10 choice to take the third game, largely because it was to be the first in Los Angeles. A sell-out crowd of 56,000 was virtually assured.

Although confident his Twins will maintain the same superiority over the Dodgers in Los Angeles as they had in Minnesota, Mele was more than a little disturbed

Gasoline Case Back In Court

A motion to obtain a judgment notwithstanding the verdict of jury in the Goudreau suit was presented in Circuit Court Friday, with three weeks given by George S. Baldwin to file briefs.

The motion was made by Butler Manufacturing Co., which with Manistique Oil Co. was named in a $16,548 judgment a jury of 12 rendered for Mr. and Mrs. George Goudreau.

The cause involved damage to the Goudreau dwelling alleged to have been caused by a leaking storage tank for gasoline.

In other action Judge Baldwin granted divorce to Sue Lynn Graphos from Gerald G. Graphos and awarded a judgment of $338.67 plus costs to Auto Owners Insurance Co. against Richard Overland.

U.P. Island Asks Improved Ferry NEEBISH ISLAND (AP)—This quiet little island community at the eastern end of the Upper Peninsula Friday joined its larger neighbor, Drummond Island, in a plea for improved ferry boat service to the mainland.

Lodging a protest with the Chippewa County Road Commission, Neebish residents are asking for better service before winter sets in. They charge the present open, flat bed ferry is hazardous in rough, winter weather.

Drummond Island residents complained of their ferry service earlier this year. Recommendations to sell the existing service are being taken to the county board of supervisors.

LITTLE BUSINESS MAN

Business hasn't been too good today. But in a minute someone will come along for a shine. Johnny will have a dime, bright and inviting, lying in his palm.

What's he going to do with that dime? As he sits in the sun, visions dance in his mind. He could buy candy, ice cream, a new magazine. He could even save it for Sunday School... but then what good could a dime do.

Suddenly Johnny remembered a Sunday School lesson. Jesus had told how precious was the penny offering of a poor widow.

Next Sunday Johnny proudly dropped his dime in the offering plate. Johnny's gift wasn't very much. It won't do a great deal to help the Church meet its financial needs. The important thing is: It helped Johnny! Going to Sunday School has put him on the road to becoming a real Christian businessman.
